FIRE STARTS FROM UNKNOWN ORIGIN

Fire of unknown origin destroyed one of the houses of Padgett's negro labor quarters near the dead river bridge on Belle Glade Road south of Pahokee around 1:30 p. m. Wednesday. The occupant of the house had left for work in the fields early in the morning and the building had been empty for hours before the fire started, according to Fire Chief Marvin Levins.

A two-hour water sports program will be a feature of the Annual Florida Watermelon Festival to be staged at Leesburg, June 16, it was announced this week by festival officials.

Communication

Dear Members and Friends:

Sunday will mark the seventh anniversary of the pastorate of the writer. Now interestingly wonderful these years have been. Evidently so, for only yesterday it seems the Mobergs felt impressed of God to accept this call.

Please know that only your fellowship, patience and loyalty enabled this pastor to accomplish what little Heaven's bookkeeper has seen fit to record. To those whose lives we failed to make a contribution, we beg forgiveness and pray God's benediction. If the judgement of our hearts is correct, we desire to be the vessel of blessing only, however, we are not unmindful of the limitations of the earthly tabernacle, and are thankful for seven years of forbearance in our behalf.

The fine members of our church, desiring to make recognition of this occasion, will present a special all day program this Sunday, Dr. J. Morrison Griffin, State Secretary of Christian Education, will speak to the men at 9:45 a. m. and to the church at 11:00 a. m. Dinner will be served at noon. The afternoon will be spent in a songfest. The pastor asked for the privilege of continuing the series of, "Israel the New State", at eight o'clock. The Training Union will meet at 6:45.

Not for one moment would we think of asking you to forego your own fine church service, however, do have dinner with us and know by my hand of greeting that you had a part in making our seven years in Pahokee, years of profound joy.

In the Master's Name.
C. A. Moberg.

REV. HOWES TO SERVE PAHOKEE CHURCH AGAIN

Rev. Carson T. Howes was assigned to the Pahokee First Methodist Church for the third consecutive year at the annual state conference of the Methodist Church held in Miami last weekend.

A new pastor, Rev. Ralph A. Fuller, was assigned to the Canal Point Methodist Church, replacing Rev. William T. Blair who was transferred to Wagg Memorial Church, West Palm Beach.

The Clearwater Exchange Club has approved plans for a county-wide conference of civic clubs, fraternal and business organizations to map plans for a referendum on the purchase of voting machines for all Pinellas County precincts and hopes to have them available before the November election.

City Owned Land Deeded To State Farmers' Market

The Pahokee City Council at a meeting Tuesday night voted to deed to the Pahokee State Farmers' Market, city-owned land on which the market is located. City Attorney Thadd Whidden was instructed to prepare the papers necessary for the transfer of title.

The Council also asked Whidden to draw up an ordinance designed to clear obstructions which in the past have lowered the efficiency of the fire department. This ordinance will enable the city to impose a fine of $25 on anyone found guilty of interfering with the activities of firemen and the movement of equipment to and at a fire.

An agreement was made with Gil Cabaldon, local airplane dusting operator, whereby city equipment and labor will be used in clearing his airstrip in exchange for Gil's services in dusting the community with DDT, the city to furnish the insecticide.

Pahokee Legion Post Has Regular Meeting

Commander James A. Stafford and other newly installed officers of Fred and Percy Mansfield Post 90 presided for the first time at a meeting in the Woman's Club building Monday night.

It was announced that Post 90 is cooperating with other Legion groups in the Glades area in the formation of a Glades Area Legion activities control committee for the planning of Legion-sponsored projects and events throughout the area to prevent conflicts in the interests of the various posts. The post went on record as opposing the government's proposed intention of discontinuing hospitalization service to the mentally ill.

David Bleech reported that the U. S. Engineers, at the request of Post 90, have moved the fence on the lake levee to the second pump house, however, the Engineers are continuing their program of planting four rows of trees on the lake side of the levee to prevent excessive soil erosion, the only gap to be a 500-foot stretch along the Pahokee waterfront.

Prior to the meeting a potluck supper was served by members of the Auxiliary.

Growers Urged To Attend Labor Camp Meeting

All growers of the Glades Area are invited and urged to attend a meeting to be held in the City Hall, Belle Glade, Florida on Thursday, June 17 at 8:00 p. m., for the purpose of discussing the disposition of the five Migratory Labor Camps in the Pahokee-Belle Glade Area. This meeting will be attended by Jerry Ooverby, Assistant to the Secretary of Agriculture; Phil Beck, Liquidation Administrator of the Production and Marketing Administration; and Hiram W. Rainey, Regional Chief of Operations, Production and Marketing Administration, Labor Branch; as representatives of the U. S. Department of Agriculture; and by Dixon Pearce, Chairman of the Labor Commission of the Florida Growers Association.

The five migratory camps have been operated by the Pahokee and Belle Glade Housing Authorities since October 16, 1947 under Revocable Permits and negotiations have been carried on through the Florida Growers Association with the Department of Agriculture in an attempt to establish some basis for permanent operation by these Authorities. At this time negotiations appear to be stalemated and it is the purpose of Messrs. Ooverby, Beck and Rainey to present directly to an assemblage of the growers of the area the terms under which the Department of Agriculture wishes to dispose of or transfer title to these camps.

The disposition and future operation of these camps is a matter of vital importance to all agricultural interests in the area. All growers are again urged to attend this meeting.

Cancer Society Make Special Arrangements

TAMPA—The American Cancer Society, Florida Division, today announced a special arrangement with the Post Office Department which will make it easy for Floridians to contribute to the fight on the nation's number two killer. The plan provides that mail addressed simply to "Cancer, Tampa, Fla." will be delivered directly to American Cancer Society State Treasurer C. B. Galloway, vice-president of Tampa's First National Bank.

All contributions received through the mail will be credited against the quota of the county from which they are received, the Society said.

Florida currently is campaigning for $200,000 to finance an intensified program of public education in cancer's early danger signals, to provide better facilities for the diagnosis and treatment of the disease and to help support a multi-million dollar research program to find the causes and cure for all types of cancer.

Resenting the name of "garbage men," employees of the Euclid, Ohio Sanitary Department now call themselves "sanitation engineers," according to the Engineering News-Record.

That Reminds Me...

A traveler just home from abroad was describing an earthquake. "Most amazing thing I ever saw," he said dramatically. "The hotel rocked. Cups and saucers were flung all over the room, and—"

His meek-looking companion turned suddenly white. "Great Scott!" he cried. "That reminds me. I forgot to post a letter my gave me two days ago." — The Rotaryman.

Strong Measures

My wife called on a Blue Ridge Mountain woman who was the mother of nine children and was expecting the tenth within a few days. "I sure am tired of having babies," the woman complained.

"Then why don't you stop?" asked my wife.
"Only way I know of to keep the youngest from being spoiled," explained the woman.—Readers Digest.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

(By Russell Kay)

I don't know who the screwball is who writes the advertisements and radio commercials for fountain pen manufacturers but I'll bet dollars to Lichi-nuts he uses a type writer and not one of the products he is trying to promote.

During the last couple of years I have been the unfortunate recipient of a half a dozen so-called fountain pens from thoughtful friends and relatives who paid heavy dough for them.

With Father's Day in the offing I fear more of the same will be crowded upon me. The way I feel now, just one more pen and I will go start, staring mad. You can gift wrap it in a straight jacket, have it delivered by two white-coated attendants and I will go quietly.

I am not a hard guy to please. All in the world I ask of a fountain pen is that it will hold ink for a reasonable length of time and that it will actually write when applied to a piece of paper. I am not a bit interested in what the fool thing will do at the top of Mt. Everest or how it performs under 40 fathoms of water. It may be guaranteed for a week or month, a year, for life or forever, but I still won't like it if it doesn't write.

I am not even particular as to its color. It can be aquamarine, fire-engine red, mouse grey, or red, white or rainbow and I'll be perfectly content if the fool thing will just write at the time and under the circumstances that I happen to want it to.

Santa Claus, bless his little heart, brought me one of those famous pens that the radio announcers have been gushing and gurgling about for months. From the buildup it has received you would imagine that it would not only write but could think, spell punctuate and fill itself.

It is a beautiful little stream-lined trinket, but if the one I've got is good for any thing but a watch fob, I'll eat it. Being an important pen, it will not write with just ordinary ink, you have to fill it with a product made especially for it. Gettin the ink into it is not so difficult, it simply involves unscrewing a cap or two and pressing a plunger. The real trick is to get the cockeyed ink out of it in an orderly manner.

You start to write with it and it works swell for a paragraph or so, then the ink stops flowing and you find yourself doing a magnificent job of invisible writing. If you are a trusting soul and inexperienced you shake the pen. This usually results in a grand and glorious blot.

Then the cap provides a lot of entertainment. When you go to use the pen you remove the cap to expose the point and place it on the other end of the thing. So far so good. Then you try to put the cap back after you have used the pen and it won't come off, or if it does the inner cap comes with it. You pull and haul and jerk and get ink all over your fingers and clothes and just naturally work yourself into frenzy.

If you are a glutton for punishment you reach for the beautiful ball pointed nicknack that aunt

Minnie gave you. That's the one that will write 500 years without refilling. It gives with plenty of ink as far as your fingers and clothes are concerned but when you try to make marks on paper with it the darn thing will be heavy and black the next one light and when you get through writing it looks like you had performed the job with chopsticks or something.

I could go on and on describing the amazing pens in my prize collection but it would just be repetition. I have thought of packing 'em all and shipping them to Europe or some place, but that would only start another war and our State Department is having a enough time as it is without me stirring up more trouble. If we have been dishing out this kind of merchandise on lend lease, I can understand why the rest of the world don't trust us.

There may be fountain pens that actually write but you can't prove it by me. Most of 'em I've had any experience with have been a total loss and the more gold plate, jeweled caps and fancy color they have the more I distrust 'em.

Of course I could send 'em back to the manufacturer with 35 cents in stamps or coin and they will then fix 'em "free of charge" not for a month or a year or a lifetime but forever, but that is a lot of signing the mail until the pen comes back from the factory?

Unless the situation improves any letters you may receive from me in the future will probably carry the rubber stamp notation. "This letter was dictated, written on a typewriter and NOT signed."

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Millar

If it's action you're looking for you won't make any mistake if you see Alan Ladd and Veronica Lake at the Prince Theatre, this Sunday-Monday, in Saigon, which is one of the most interesting stories of the Orient that we have had screened here.

For a capsule synopsis: Three Army fliers, one of them living on borrowed time, take on a mysterious flight from Shankhai to Saigon in order to get enough money to give the doomed man an exciting last few months. They become embroiled in a money-smuggling plot and involved with a beautiful and secretive blonde, with the outcome finally settled in a hail of blazing bullets.

With Ladd and Lake teamed together again I am sure it will bring back pleasant memories of their first picture... only, Veronica wears her hair different now... and Ladd has improved with shady roles.

I am sure you'll enjoy every moment of this fine and exciting picture.

See you at the movies—Mal.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo. Boe had as their guest the past week her brother, James Mitchell, of Winter Haven.

Who is this Man?

Now and then, in the pages of the Clarion, I run a biographical quiz, under the heading of "Who Is This Man?" For instance...

"He was one of the earliest lovers in American history..."

"And yet he was too shy to court a woman outright..."

"He came to the New World on the Mayflower..."

"A cooper to repair the beer barrels accompanying the Pilgrims..."

"Who is this man?"

I thought that everybody was stumped. But not Ma Hoskins, who returned the clipping to me with "John Alden" on it. She recognized all the clues—including that reference to "beer" and "cooper."

For Ma—who's read her history, knows that beer as the beverage of moderation, is as old in this land of ours as the never-ending American search for tolerance which brought the Pilgrims over to this country in the first place.

That's right! When you must walk on the highways in rural or suburban areas, always walk on the left side of the road—facing traffic.

There is plenty of reason for this. Last year for every person killed facing traffic three were killed walking with traffic. 24 Floridians lost their lives and 33 were injured walking the wrong way instead of facing oncoming cars. For every daytime fatality there were 4 deaths during the dusk and dark hours. Six more people lost their lives merely standing in the road.

Never assume you are safe when walking on the highways—many times you are hard to see. Then, too, the despicable hit and run driver is still at large—his numbers and his victims increasing. In the first six months of 1946, 78 hit-and-run accidents were recorded in Florida and 16 were killed by these car cowards.

So remember for your own sake—on highways, walk to the left facing traffic—be alert to danger—be alive tomorrow.

CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

"GOD THE PRESERVER OF MAN" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world on Sunday, June 13.

The Golden Text is: "The Lord bless thee, and keep thee: the Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace" (Numbers 6:24-26).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms" (Deuteronomy 33:27 (to-)).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "When an accident happens, you think or exclaim, 'I'm hurt!' ...

Now reverse the process. Declare that you are not hurt and understand the reason why, and you will find the ensuing good effects to be in exact proportion to your disbelief in physics, and your fidelity to divine metaphysics, confidence in God as All, which the Scriptures declare Him to be" (397:12-13, 17).

Riddle Inter-American College of arts and science was incorporated in Oct. 1946, as a continuation of the Riddle Inter-American Institute of languages, at which time business courses as well as approved college courses were added to the language curriculum. In Nov. 1947, the college was granted permission to operate as a non-profit organization.

The Riddle Aviation Co., and Riddle Equipment Co., other divisions of the J. P. Riddle Co., which also leased space in the Colonnade Building, have moved to the Twentieth Street airport.

Electronics Plant Operates At Perry

PERRY—Equipment was installed here last week by Lt. (jg) Gordon G. Fletcher, assistant to the Seventh Naval District electronics officer, for the purpose of training electronic personnel in radar, sonar and radio, the third such station in West Florida, others being in Live Oak and Tallahassee.

Harold Martin, Lieutenant (jg) in the Naval Reserve, is commanding officer of the local reserve platoon. Frank Smith will be instructor and drills will be held Monday and Tuesday nights of each week at the American Legion Home, where a 40-watt radio telephone code transmitter, and code practice table have been installed.

In addition to training navy personnel and other interested persons in electronics, the station will serve as an emergency communications system. During the hurricane season, warnings from the Hurricane Reporting Station in Miami will be received here, Lt. Fletcher stated.

The local platoon will consist of Lt. Martin and ten men. Fifteen electronic warfare companies are being organized in the state, according to Lt. Fletcher.

Gen. Lowry stressed that attendance of every National Guardsman at the camp is vital.

STATE OF ISRAEL SERIES WILL CONTINUE AS SUBJECT

Each edition of the newspaper brings to light evidence concerning the new State of Israel, the Jews. The question, "Will there be another?", is of paramount interest and importance. Rev. C. A. Moberg will continue at the First Baptist Church of Pahokee on Sunday night at 8 o'clock, his series of Bible teachings, "Israel the New State". Based entirely upon the Scriptures, the past, present and future of the Jews will be discussed. All interested are asked to bring their Bibles, notebooks and pencils that the Scripture references might be obtained for home study.

Rose Points To Evils Of Centralized Power

JACKSONVILLE—Speaking before the Jacksonville Rotary Club recently, State Senator Walter Rose of Orlando urged the decentralization of government.

"The best government is government closest to the people," he said. "State and cities in America were built by private enterprise. Our system of private enterprise must continue if our country is to prosper."

"The income of the people customarily goes down faster than taxes are reduced," he said in pointing out the dangers of overtaxation and, he added, "The public should be taxed for only the necessities of government."

PRELUDE TO ACCIDENT-

Injury - - - - Death!

Every violation of the center line of safety is a potential prelude to accident.

Crossing into the danger zone can occur at the approach to the top of a hill—on a curve—going into an underpass, or even on the straight highway. That's reckless, dangerous driving! Accident records show that about one half of all fatal traffic accidents result from bad driving habits such as these.

It's your responsibility to yourself, your family and to others who share the road to avoid these "Pass-Pockets" where lurk injury—and death.

Don't let impatient driving tag your conscience with being one of those who contributed to the maiming or death of the hundreds of thousands who will be auto accident victims this year.

You can be a safe driver if you will. It's up to you.

Rev. Blair To Leave Canal Point Church After 2 Years Service

The appointment of the Rev. William T. Blair, for two years pastor of the Canal Point Methodist Church, to the pastorate of the Wagg Memorial Methodist of West Palm Beach was announced by Bishop Arthur J. Moore at the close of the Florida Annual Conference last Sunday. The local pulpit will be filled by the Rev. R. A. Fuller of Miami, a recent graduate of Drew Theological Seminary. Mr. Fuller comes to Canal Point with eight years experience in the ministry.

Mr. Blair will bring his ministry in Canal Point to a close with services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. on Sunday. Sunday School will precede the Morning Service as usual. Moving between Methodist charges is usually completed in the week following appointment but storms and floods have so delayed school graduations this year that many pastors are unable to move their families before next week. Therefore, Bishop Moore requested pastors to return to their charges for an extra Sunday, suggesting Tuesday, June 15, as moving day.

The Blairs, Miriam and Bill, have expressed their sincere sorrow in being called from Canal Point. "Our two years here have been exceedingly happy," said Mr. Blair. "The loyalty to the work of the Lord and the fellowship and love of our neighbors has meant a great deal to us. It is a real tribute to the members and friends of the Canal Point Church that in spite of two disastrous years economically, they have gone ahead steadily, building their new Sunday School structure, doubling Sunday School attendance, adding thirty members in the past year, and meeting all bills and obligations. By God's grace, and with whole-hearted support of the new pastor, we fully expect an even greater advance in the coming months. We will miss all of our friends very much and we are sorry to be leaving. Under the Methodist system of appointment, the Bishop and his cabinet of the Superintendents of the seven Florida Districts meet before and during the Annual Conference to survey the work and needs of the 450 Methodist Churches in Florida and from their appraisal of the work of the entire state make their appointments with the interest of each individual church and minister sincerely considered."

Mr. Blair will be replacing the Rev. H. A. Spencer who is retiring at the age of 70.

Mrs. Adaline Stuckey is expected to return home this weekend from a two weeks' visit with her aunt, Mr. Cora Blow, in Baltimore, Md., and other relatives in Virginia.

HAVE YOU HEARD THE ONE ABOUT THE 4 PENGUINS?

They came up here from the Antarctic. And summers were quite a problem. How could they keep cool? The first penguin plumped for attic ventilation. And it worked wonders. He's written his agent to go ahead and sell the igloo. The second penguin installed a big air-cooling fan. He's wiring money to Mrs. P. and the kids to come on up and join him. The third penguin (who smokes a lot) figured he needed complete air conditioning. He sleeps like a kitten now. The fourth penguin bought himself a big new electric fan. It's been weeks since he even thought about the old home berg. Yes, each in his own different way solved his problem of how to keep cool in summer. And they all lived happily ever after. Certainly Penguins aren't smarter than people!
